

Sheridan WYO Rodeo Royalty Competition Rules & Regulations

1. The Sheridan WYO Rodeo Royalty Board reserves the right to refuse an applicant to participate in the Sheridan WYO Rodeo Royalty competition.
2. Little Miss contestants must be between the ages of 7 and 10 by competition date: (ages 7-10). Junior Princess contestants must be between the ages of 10 and 13 by competition date: (ages 10-13). Princess contestants must be between the ages of 13 and 16 by competition date: (ages 13-16). Sr. Princess contestants must be between the ages of 16 and 19 by competition date: (ages 16-19). Queen contestants must have reached their nineteenth birthday by competition date and shall not have reached their twenty sixth birthday by November 1st of the year of reign: (ages 19-25). Notice that there is an overlap year in each category. This means they may try out in either category depending on the number of contestants we have.
3. Those crowned as Sheridan WYO Rodeo Sr. Princess, Princess, Junior Princess and Little Miss may not run again for each respective title.
4. Contestants must meet the resident qualifications of the Sheridan WYO Rodeo Queen Board. Contestants must reside in the state of Wyoming and live within a 100 mile radius of Sheridan.
5. A completed release (attached) must be submitted with entry to the Sheridan WYO Rodeo Queen Board before contestant is eligible to participate in any contest activity.
6. The Sheridan WYO Rodeo Queen Board requests that all contestants wear complete western attire including hats and boots at all times during each event.
7. Contestant must not be holding any Queen or Princess title for any other rodeo, or for any other horse-related event at the time of the contest.
8. Any contestant giving another contestant any harassment or showing unsportsmanlike character may result in disqualification.
9. Any unnecessary interference of parents or others may result in disqualification of the contestant.
10. Contestant must conduct herself in a ladylike manner at all times. Disorderly conduct will not be permitted.
11. Any contestant not present for any part of the rehearsal or contest or being late without permissible excuse may result in disqualification.
12. No bribing or threats will be permitted.
13. All contestants will be observed and judged up until the time of crowning.
14. The queen board is not responsible for contestant's horse, tack, and attire.
15. Contestants must be qualified to ride and handle her horse safely at all times.
16. Any contestant treating her or any other animal in an inhumane manner will be disqualified.
17. Horsemanship - Contestant will be required to run one of the attached reining patterns for the horsemanship portion of the contest. Tack must align with the 2019 AQHA Handbook Rules for bits and equipment. Contestants will be required to carry a flag on horseback. Make sure your horse is flag-worthy. Contestants will do a presentation ride (grand entry run) and dismount for a horsemanship interview. Jr. Princess contestants will not be judged when mounting and dismounting. For the horsemanship competition, boots, hat, jeans and snap or button down western collared shirt only, please – no embellishments such as fringe or sequins and no chaps. Queen contestants only will do a second round of horsemanship on a "trade horse". The trade horse will be a draw with all queen contestant horses. Unsaddling and saddling will also be judged during that time for Queen contestants only. Little Miss will not compete in horsemanship.

18. Photos - Contestant must furnish one full length and one head and shoulders view photograph. These should be in western attire, color, 4" x 6". These need not be done by a professional. Photos are due (see date on cover page).
19. Modeling - Contestants will be required to model a casual western outfit and a dressy western-trendy outfit. The length of skirts, pants, and a good "fit" and hat shape are essential in the "total look." Dresses, skirts, and blouses should reflect a western image. Sleeve length is at least ¾ length. No cleavage. Skirt length should be no shorter than 2" above knee. Evening gown and cocktail type dresses are not acceptable. Example of casual outfit: shirt, jeans (vest or jacket optional). Example of dressy outfit: dress or skirt and shirt (jacket or vest optional). Contestants are expected to appear in "full western attire" at all times unless otherwise specified. All outfits should include a western dress hat, boots, and belt.
20. Please provide a commentary. Commentary is due (see date on cover page). Commentaries should be on index cards and should include: 1 card for western dressy outfit - (see sample on next page.)
  - Outfit description
  - Hobbies and special interests
  - Goals
  - Name, age, parents
21. Impromptu Questions - Contestants will answer an impromptu question during the modeling portion of the contest. These questions will be personality questions.
22. Impromptu Speech - Queen contestants only will be required to give an impromptu speech on a chosen topic by the queen board and/or judges. They will be given the topic and 5-10 minutes to prepare.
23. Mock Media Interview - Queen contestants only will participate in a mock media interview.
24. Personal Interviews - Each contestant will have a timed interview with the judges. Questions asked in the interviews may include current events, personal goals, interests, and rodeo knowledge. Personal interview outfit may be their western outfit of choice.
25. Written Test - Contestants will take a written test. Questions will consist of knowledge of tack, horse care, feeding, diseases, anatomy, etc.; knowledge of professional rodeo, its history, organization, rodeo terminology or vernacular, standard events, championship standings, and awareness of the PRCA.
26. A contestant must meet a points requirement for all parts of the contest: personality, appearance, and horsemanship. Horsemanship will be worth 50%, and combined appearance and personality 50%. The contestant must have at least 70% of the total points in each of these two categories: horsemanship and combined personality and appearance to qualify. The judges will determine how many points to award each contestant. Judges scores are final. The judges score all horsemanship categories, photogenic, personality, and appearance. The contestants will vote for Miss Congeniality. Knowledge category will be combined scores of written test, horsemanship knowledge, rodeo knowledge, and current event knowledge. People's Choice Award will be determined by the audience.
27. If there is an overall tie, the tie will be broken by the highest horsemanship score. If there is a tie in horsemanship, the tie will be broken by the highest personality score.

28. Any questions, concerns, or discrepancies regarding outcome of results need to be presented to a board member within 48 hours of results.
29. Sheridan WYO Rodeo Queen Board exerts the sole interpretation of the rules and regulations.
30. When the coronation is complete each contestant will receive their score sheets so they can see how they scored.
31. The new Royalty will be given a schedule including a list of events they are required to attend throughout their reign. Both the new royalty and previous years royalty are expected to attend the remaining events for the year together (events scheduled between the contest date and the end of the calendar year). Previous royalty will mentor new royalty during these overlap events.
32. Fundraiser for new royalty and farewell ceremony for old royalty will be held in late September/early October. Detailed information will be given during our first meeting.

For any further information please contact one of the Rodeo Queen Board members:

Vicki Jost 307-763-2201; Jennifer Craft 307-751-6216 Kerri Parr 307-461-2624; Lois Bass 307-752-3754; Kelly Greenough 480-818-2616;
Julie Boyd 307-752-4006; Natalie Steger 571-291-1494; Morgan Stalick 307-752-0830

Sample Bio Card:

Kerri Parr is the 21 year old daughter of Rodney Parr and Janice Feaster. Kerri is currently attending the University of Wyoming and majoring in Range Management with a minor in Public Relations. Kerri is modeling a Jan Faulkner original suede leather dress in festive turquoise. Notice the rhinestone embellishments around the sleeves, neckline, and hemline. Just like Kerri's personality, these bright rhinestones pop against the turquoise background. Kerri finishes off the ensemble with hat and boots to match. Kerri has a vast range of interests. Whether it be rodeoing or reading, sewing or skiing, or just plain hanging with friends and family, Kerri is always up for a good time. Kerri's future plans are to finish her bachelor's degree and continue on with successfully completing her master's degree and landing a great job in her respective field.

Look out!! Here comes Kerri ready to saddle up and get the job done. Whether it be working cows or rounding third barrel, she is ready to "Bring It On Home." Kerri is wearing dark blue denim Wranglers with a classic western shirt. The embroidered flowers around the yoke with a hint of sparkle reflect Kerri's vibrant personality. Kerri chooses turquoise and silver jewelry to accent her outfit and tops it off with a Resistol hat and Lucchese boots. Kerri Parr is the 10 year old daughter of Rodney Parr and Janice Feaster. Kerri is currently in the 5th grade at Big Horn Elementary School where art is her favorite subject. Kerri enjoys barrel racing and pole bending and racing her brother on horseback. If Kerri isn't at the corrals, you'll find her enjoying a good book or on the back porch sketching.